Business Leader Media

Charles Lambert, Franchisee, Rapid Refill Ink, High Point, was named an Impact Entrepreneur by Business Leader Magazine. Learn more about Charles Lambert's background, professional achievements and community involvement.

Name: Charles Lambert
Title: Franchisee
Company: Rapid Refill Ink, High Point

Impact: Lambert with co-owner and wife, Tassnee, provides new and remanufactured printer ink and toner cartridges at a significant savings from new OEM cartridges. The couple has been in business for one year and will soon offer specialty paper products, printers and related components. They provide quality products at reduced costs to people and businesses in local communities while protecting the environment. Rapid Refill works with schools, churches and organizations on cartridge recycling programs. The team says their greatest contribution is offering the best product possible for their customers — helping them save money and the environment. Rapid Refill plans to expand its services to additional retail-only locations around the Triad region to be serviced by the existing full-service remanufacturing facility.
